

Autism Information in Community Languages

The National Autistic Society is a charity championing the rights of individuals with autism and their families throughout the UK. As part of our commitment to expand the information provided in community languages, we have translated a new leaflet 'What is autism? Ways you can help' into five community languages – Chinese, Portuguese, Polish, Somali and Tamil. This leaflet aimed at parents and carers not only explains what autistic spectrum disorders are, but also provided some basic strategies that can be implemented. These leaflets along with the existing leaflets in community languages can be downloaded from our website:

www.autism.org.uk/nas/jsp/polopoly.jsp?d=650

Hard copies can be requested from our Autism Helpline: 0845 070 4004

The National Autistic Society – July 2006