

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

October 2005 is Breast Cancer Awareness month and Breast Cancer Care has launched a campaign to raise awareness of breast cancer amongst black and minority ethnic communities, older people and socially disadvantaged people. The campaign is entitled 'Same Difference' and you can read about it on the Breast Cancer Care website, easily located on the home page under 'Campaigns'.

www.breastcancercare.org.uk

(Click on the 'Campaigns' icon at the top of the home page.)