

What About Faith?: A good practice guide for services on meeting the religious needs of people with learning disabilities

Chris Hatton, Susannah Turner, Robina Shah, Nabela Rahim and Julie Stansfield

This guide is designed to help services meet the religious needs of people with learning disabilities. Full of practical ideas, information and resources, it uses lessons learned from services who have been working to improve the way they meet people's religious needs.

What about faith? Will be useful for anyone supporting a person with learning disabilities, or working in any capacity within services for people with learning disabilities such as commissioners, service managers, staff and training departments.
