

Supporting Parents Messages from Research

*Foreword by the Right Honourable Margaret Hodge, Minister for Children, Young People and Families
- 2004*

Supporting Parents brings together authoritative research on supporting parents and carers. Underpinning the government's developing policy for children's services, it is essential reading for practitioners, policy makers and academics working in child care.

Professor David Quinton, a nationally recognised authority in the field of parenting and child development, summarises the key findings of an innovative government-funded series of research studies. The studies explored subjects as diverse as parenting in poverty, imprisoned fathers, and parents who reject their children.
