

Bollywood Film: Tare Zameen Par – ‘Stars on the Earth’

This film explores the issues of discrimination faced by children and families concerning special needs, learning difficulties and dyslexia.

Different methods have been used when trying to get the message across and this film will go a long way in changing perceptions and raise awareness of the topic especially in the Asian community, not just in India, but worldwide.

The film is called Tare Zameen Par – which means ‘stars on earth’ and was produced and directed by Aamir Bhai who also stars.
