Jewish Perspective on Theology and the Human Experience of Disability examines:

- three methods that allow Jews who are blind to participate in the Torah service
- the spiritual needs of people with learning disabilities
- the attitude of Jewish Law toward marriage and parenthood on people with intellectual disabilities
- how the rabbis of the Mishnah incorporated Greco-Roman beliefs about the connections between hearing, speech, and intelligence into Jewish law
- a sampling of opinions issued on matters concerning disabilities by the Responsa Committee of the Central Conference of American Rabbis
- how the Jewish sages have made participation by people with disabilities possible.
